

MRS. SWISSELM.

Her Views on Heating and Ventilation.

An Exposure of the Evils of the Present Furnace System.

Breathing Foul Cellar-Air in the Living and Sleeping Apartments.

An Invention which Promises to Furnish Healthier Lung-Food.

Special Correspondence of The Tribune.

LEIPZIG, SAXONY, July 30.—When I was a resident of your ambitious city, there was a local excitement, one winter, because one of the Judges refused to hold Court, giving as a reason that the air of the Court-room was so foul he could not breathe. Of course, the matter was investigated; and, of course, I read THE TRIBUNE reports and correspondence on the subject. At the time the public were notified that the basement of the Court-House was foul, especially that the heating-furnace was situated in the basement; that there was no cold air, but that this foul, subterranean atmosphere was drawn into the hot-air chamber, and forced up into the Court-rooms, for the benefit of His Honor and other persons compelled to be present at the Temple of Justice.

At first I thought THE TRIBUNE had been imposed upon, and would have to meet a suit with heavy damages for a libel on the Commissioners; but, instead of a libel-suit, there was only cumulative evidence, overbearing proof, that the science and artistry of this wondrous invention had actually breached a brief though pointed audience in the outside, including the Rev. Mr. Edwards, followed by the Rev. Mr. McMillan, Rev. Mr. Dickey, Rev. Mr. Paulist, Father Carter, Father McGuire, Father Vener, Father Gray, in not coming until nearly the commencement of the procession in the outside, including the Rev. Mr. Edwards, followed by the Rev. Mr. McMillan, Rev. Mr. Dickey, Rev. Mr. Paulist, Father Carter, Father McGuire, Father Vener, Father Gray, and not having a single word to say.

With the parish there is a parsonal Sister of Charity of the most saintly Virgin.

CHIPLS OF CHRIST.

REACHER AN EXCERSCENCE ON

THE TRUE CHURCH.

of Christ are a religious organization on Sunday afternoons at church street. Like the disciples of Christ, they are in an upper room, a smaller organization, however, to judge from what I saw yesterday.

the chief discipole is a gentleman well in life, Judge from his beard. His name is James and he is the most Biblical learner man, with dark hair,

in a regulation suit of black.

His wife sat next to him, and she said she had been a 17 year old. Another but, while she seemed to be not appear to belong to the fold. She declined to give room in which the disciples were for the sitting-room in the house. It was scantly furnished and, a table, the later, a smoky stove. A napkin of a coat, the service in the service, was the

the most primitive

described the singing and was an musical instrument.

With an

the singing and the

the service

The Tribune.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

TABLE IN ADVANCE—POSTAGE PREPAID AT THIS OFFICE
Daily Edition, postage paid, 1 year.....	$1.00
Bi-monthly Edition, postage paid, 1 year.....	1.00
Bi-monthly Edition, Little 1 year.....	3.00
Bi-monthly Edition, 1 year.....	6.00
Bi-monthly Edition, 1 year.....	12.00
WEEKLY EDITION, POSTPAID.
One copy, per year.....	8.50
Club of twenty.....	16.00
Postage paid, 1 year.....	20.00
Specimen copies sent free.
To prevent delay and mistakes, be sure and give Post-Office address in full, including State and City. Remittance should be sent with the money, or a money order, Post-Office order, or in registered letters, at our risk.

TERMS TO CITTIZEN SUBSCRIBERS.

Daily, delivered, Sunday, excepted, 25 cents per week.
Daily, delivered, Sunday, excepted, 25 cents per week.
Advertisers, 25 cents per week.

Corner Madison and Dearborn-sts., Chicago, IL.

TILDEN'S RECORD.

THE GREAT CAMPAIGN DOCUMENT.
THE RECORD OF THE MAN WHO WAS—
1. A SENSATIONIST, AND OPPOSED TO THE WAR FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF THE UNION.
2. A BOSSOM FRIEND OF THE REBELLED.
3. A MEMBER OF THE CRIMINAL GANG.
4. A REFORMER WHO REDUCED NO TAXES, REFORMED NO CANAL CORRUPTION, AND MADE NOTHING BETTER THAN A CROOK.
5. A CONGRESSMAN WHO BALLOONED AND LIES IN FRAUDULENT ELECTIONS.
6. AN ISSUE OF SHINPLASTER TO LABOR ENGAGED IN THE BATTLE OF MICHIGAN.
7. A MONSTROUS RAILROAD SHARK WHO AMASSED MILLION BY DEVOURING WESTERN RAILROADS IN FINANCIAL TROUBLE.

The great campaign document will be the size of a copy of this should be placed in the hands of every voter in the West.
Hayes and Wheeler Club everywhere should order
"TILDEN'S RECORD."
THE RAILROAD CO., Chicago.

AMUSEMENTS.

Hayes' Theatre.
Randolph street, between Clark and LaSalle. Call Gloria Minstrels.

McVicker's Theatre.
Madison street, between Dearborn and State. "The Three Guardsmen."

Wood's Museum.
Monroe street, between Dearborn and State. "An adventurous."

Adelphi Theatre.
Monroe street, corner Dearborn. Variety performances.

Hooley's New Chicago Theatre.
Clark street, between Lake and Randolph. Hooley's Minstrels.

MONDAY, AUGUST 21, 1876.

At the New Gold Exchange on Saturday the dollar greenback represented 90¢ in gold.

The officers of the Signal Service predict a rising temperature with increasing easterly to southerly winds.

Under the head of "The Pulpit" will be found this morning sermons by the Rev.
John Atkinson on the Providence of God in the Harford murder; by the Rev. James MacLachlan, on the question of the Bible in the schools; by the Rev. John Williams, on the moral influences of games and pastimes;
an account of the dedication of a new Roman Catholic Church, and a description of the peculiar worship practiced by the Disciples.

Mr. PATRICK FANNING affirms the correctness of the copy of the "agreement" between himself and McNEIL for a division of the profits on the Court-House stone contract, as published in Sunday's Tribune.
He declares his intention to hold McNEIL to the terms of the copartnership agreement in case the County Board to-day ratifies the action of the Committee,—in which case, where would the Ring dividends come from?
The thing is getting complicated and ventuous for McCaffrey's "eight."

A fresh-water yacht disaster occurred during the gale of Saturday night off Racine, Wis.
The yacht Sylvia, on her way from Milwaukee to Chicago to take part in the regatta to be sailed at this city, was disabled and partially capsized by the violence of the wind and sea, and two of her crew perished before assistance could reach them. No special blame seems to attach to any one, unless all hands were to blame for putting their lives in the keeping of a craft so poorly fitted to withstand rough weather.

A letter published elsewhere in this issue gives a graphic and circumstantial account of the terrible condition of affairs in the anthracite coal-fields of Pennsylvania, which seem to have been wholly given over to the lawless and murderous dominion of the Molly Maguires. The infamous order has gained a large membership, which is said to include many of the local officials, so that assassination and outrage are seldom punished. Here is an opportunity for Gov.
HARTRUMPT to show his capacity for handling a portion or two of State troops.

The trail which Geor, Coxon and Tracy are following with all possible speed indicates a force of between 7,000 and 8,000 warriors, besides many wounded and squaws.
The Indians are believed to have been reduced to severe straits by starvation, observations in their deserted camps showing that they have been compelled to use their ponies and dogs for food. Sirrino Bull is, however, accomplishing his retreat with the same consummate skill that has been shown in all his movements, invariably selecting an impregnable position for his camp, and manifesting no intention to offer battle until he can do so under conditions favorable to his peculiar methods of warfare. Our correspondent, "Phocion," is of the opinion that the Indians will either be forced to fight, or disband and hide in the Bad Lands.

The Chicago produce markets were quiet Saturday. Meats closed 100 per lb. higher, at $17.30¢ to 17.32¢ cash and $15.05 seller the year. Lard closed 2¢ per 100 lbs.
higher, at $10.55¢ to 10.57¢ cash and $9.35 seller the year. Meats were quiet, at 6¢ for boxed shoulders, 8¢ for short ribs, and 9¢ for short clears. Lake freights were quiet, at 1¢ for corn to Buffalo. Rail freights were unchanged. Highwines were steady, at $1.10 per gallon. Flour was less active and firm. Wheat closed 4¢ lower, at 8¢ for August and 8¢ for September. Corn closed 4¢ lower, at 44¢ cash and 44¢ for September. Oats closed 4¢ lower, at 30¢ cash and 30¢ for September. Rye was firm, at 52¢ to 53¢. Barley was dull and easier, at 69¢. Hogs were in good demand and ruled firm, closing at $6.20 to 6.25 for light and at $5.75¢ to 6.10 for common to prime hams. Received, 4,000, and for the week, 43,000. The cattle market was moderately active and firm, sales making on a basis of $3.00 to $5.00 for common to choice.
Receipts for the week, 15,691. There were no sales of sheep. Poor to choice were quoted at $3.00 to 4.50 per 100 lbs. One hundred dollars in gold would buy $110.62 in greenbacks at the close.

The death of the Hon. MICHAEL C. KERN, Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Forty-fourth Congress, occurred at Rock-bridge Alum Springs, Va., at half-past 7 o'clock Saturday evening. The event had been anticipated for several weeks. Mr.
Kern's condition being such as to forbid any well-grounded hope of his recovery. The sick man himself was perfectly advised of the nearness of his end, and he met it with the great fortitude and calmness. At the very last his intense sufferings mercifully abated, and he passed away peacefully and without pain. The remains will be taken to burial in the family home in New Albany, Ind., in charge of a small Congressional escort, though an effort will be made by Mr. SAYLER, Speaker pro tem., to have the body brought to Washington and placed in state in the Capitol for one day.
It is to be hoped that this may be done, and an opportunity thus afforded for a public demonstration befitting the exalted character and position of the deceased.

It has remained for a Democratic newspaper in the South, the Charleston, S. C., News and Advertiser, to supply valuable information for the guidance of Attorney-General TILDEN and Gen. SHERMAN in carrying out the instructions contained in the recent order of the President relative to the location of troops in the South. A dispatch to that paper from Aiken, S. C., gives a Democratic version of the manner in which a Republican meeting, at which Gov. CHAMBERLAIN and Congressman SMALLS were to have spoken, was broken up and taken possession of by about 600 mounted whites and a large crowd on foot. The colored Republicans, we are told, dispersed quietly, and did not attempt to hold another meeting, while the 600 mounted Democrats and their infantry support organized a meeting and proclaimed their intention to carry the county election peaceably if they could, forcibly if they must, and to prevent the holding of Republican meetings. That account, which must be reliable, as it comes from Confederate sources, shows at least one locality where troops are needed to insure a free and fair election.

TILDEN'S INDICTMENT.

The Cincinnati Times has summed up the charges made against TILDEN in the four weeks which have elapsed since the nomination. It makes no account of mere campaign stories and rumors, but confines its list to charges which are susceptible of direct and positive proof, and it finds that TILDEN is guilty, first, of disloyalty to his country and of such sympathy with armed treason as to demand an immediate cessation
of the War, and the holding of a peace convention with the rebellious States; second,
of making just the same false pretenses of Unionism, when he finds his War record
among the rebels; third, of being a traitor
to the Union.

THE RAILROADS.

The Cincinnati Times has summed up the
charges made against TILDEN in the four
weeks which have elapsed since the nomination. It makes no account of mere campaign stories and rumors, but confines its
list to charges which are susceptible of
direct and positive proof, and it finds that TILDEN is guilty, first, of disloyalty to his
country and of such sympathy with armed
treason as to demand an immediate cessation
of the War, and the holding of a peace convention with the rebellious States; second,
of making just the same false pretenses of Unionism, when he finds his War record
among the rebels; third, of being a traitor
to the Union.

THE RAILROADS.

The Cincinnati Times has summed up the
charges made against TILDEN in the four
weeks which have elapsed since the nomination. It makes no account of mere campaign stories and rumors, but confines its
list to charges which are susceptible of
direct and positive proof, and it finds that TILDEN is guilty, first, of disloyalty to his
country and of such sympathy with armed
treason as to demand an immediate cessation
of the War, and the holding of a peace convention with the rebellious States; second,
of making just the same false pretenses of Unionism, when he finds his War record
among the rebels; third, of being a traitor
to the Union.

THE SEPTEMBER ELECTIONS.

The States of Maine and Vermont hold their elections for Congress and State Officers in the early weeks of September, Vermont voting on the 5th and Maine on the 11th.

There are those Democrats who are arguing that if these States show a falling off in the Republican majorities at these September elections, it will indicate a popular tide in favor of TILDEN that must be followed by a sweeping Democratic victory in the West. Now, the fact is, that the result of the elections in Vermont and Maine in 1876 will have no material significance. There is not a man who does not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an emphatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the probable outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an em-
phatic majority, and that such a result will
influence no man's opinions as to the prob-
able outcome of the Presidential election.
During the last twenty years the Republican
majority in Vermont has ranged from 18,977
to 30,554. The fact that the majority in one
year was five or six thousand greater or
less than it was the year before had no possible
significance. There is not a man who does
not know that the Republicans will carry
both States by not only a large but an emphatic majority, and that such a result will

FOREIGN.

Sharp Battle Between Turks and Servians at Alexianatz.

Trustworthy Details of the Gigantic Atrocities in Bulgaria.

Little Possibility of Exaggerating the Diabolism of the Mohammedans.

Massacre of 1,500 Women and Children in Abyssinia.

TURKEY.

THE CONSTANTINOPLE SIDE OF IT. CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 20.—In consequence of Turkish strategy in marching back to Granja Pass and around northwesterly to the rear of Alexianatz, the great Servian and at Banja Pass is useless. All Servians attacked the Servian entrenched in the frontier and the Servians fled towards Alexianatz. The Bashli Baskouts are driving villages behind them.

ANOTHER VERSION.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—A dispatch from Alexianatz reports that, after driving in the Servian outposts on Saturday, Allie Sabh pressed towards Tezca. The camouflaging was heavy and the fighting of intense. The Servians without the assault. The Turks began to retreat in the afternoon. The Servians followed, driving them across the frontier.

CRETE.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—An Athens dispatch announces that an insurrection has broken out at Retima, in Crete.

THE ATROCITIES IN BULGARIA.

TATAR BAZAAR, Aug. 1.—I have just seen the town of Batek, with Mr. Schuyler. Mr. Baring was there yesterday. Here is what I saw: on approaching the town, on a hill there were some dogs. They ran away, and we found on this spot a number of skulls scattered about and one ghastly heap of skeletons with clothing. I counted from the saddle 100 skulls, picked and licked clean, all of women and children. We entered the town. On every side were skulls and skeletons charred, among the ruins, or lying entire where they fell in their clothing. The ghastly pile of girls and women with long brown hair, bound to the skulls. We approached the church. There these remains were more frequent, until the ground was literally covered with skeletons, skulls, and putrefied bodies in clothing. Between the church and the other side of the town were heaps. The stench was fearful. We entered the churchyard. The sight was more dreadful. The whole churchyard for a deep feed was festering with the dead, partly buried, partly laid, and bodies projected in ghastly confusion. I saw many little hands, heads, and feet of children 3 years of age, and girls, with heads covered with beautiful hair. The churchyard was covered with bodies quite uncovered. I never imagined anything so fearful.

There were 3,000 bodies in the churchyard and cemetery, and though not every inch a gentleman.

Acting actors is playing in the blood-and-thunder drama. It is an encouragement there, and a discount.

Mr. Swindell, we scarcely know of the defeat of the White Horse Stockings in St. Louis last season will enlighten us.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

Mr. F. A. Ducat and Mr. Logan have been invited to speak at the "Andersonville" this week.

merge it willingly in a future Pan-Slavonic greatness.

THE WAGNER BANQUET. THE COMPOSER CROWNED WITH A SILVER WREATH—GENERAL CONGRATULATIONS—REMARKS OF WAGNER AND THE VENERABLE HERZL.

Dispatch to New York Times.

BATHEIM, Aug. 13.—The Wagner banquet to-day was a social affair, both in point of numbers and in the character of the guests. No fewer than 500 persons were present.

Herr Wagner made a long speech, explanatory of his words uttered during the festival previous to this evening. The remarks then indulged in meant only that France and Italy having operas of their own, Germany wished that she could now have a new, lively and dramatic art. He then thanked the artists, to whom all were indebted. He also thanked the Spanish people, who had given him so much, and shown so much interest in his work. He next expressed in warm terms his gratitude to the Managing Committee, and said that to them he was a "son of the people."

As he finished, the guests and the public outside of the hall applauded to the echo, and cried, "Hoch! Hoch! Hoch! Wagner!"

Wagner was then escorted by the "Molly Maguire"—a gang of men, kept in prison by every land-lord, for the purpose of evicting tenants, throwing the houses over the heads of those who refused to pay, and using the same tactics for rent, and went to the "singing" (but or cottage) of Molly Maguire.

The constant failure of the crops made her some tardy in paying her rent; and at length the landlord—an unscrupulous man—determined to leave; but so attacked was she to the old heart, so broken at the prospect of eviction, that she said she would die, and refused to be evicted from her home.

At 10 o'clock the party began to leave; but the landlord, who was one of the party, to enter his yacht in the harbor, and to leave.

As he finished, the guests and the public outside of the hall applauded to the echo, and cried, "Hoch! Hoch! Hoch! Wagner!"

Wagner was then escorted by the "Molly Maguire"—a gang of men, kept in prison by every land-lord, for the purpose of evicting tenants, throwing the houses over the heads of those who refused to pay, and using the same tactics for rent, and went to the "singing" (but or cottage) of Molly Maguire.

The constant failure of the crops made her some tardy in paying her rent; and at length the landlord—an unscrupulous man—determined to leave; but so attacked was she to the old heart, so broken at the prospect of eviction, that she said she would die, and refused to be evicted from her home.

At 10 o'clock the party began to leave; but the landlord, who was one of the party, to enter his yacht in the harbor, and to leave.

As he finished, the guests and the public outside of the hall applauded to the echo, and cried, "Hoch! Hoch! Hoch! Wagner!"

Wagner was then escorted by the "Molly Maguire"—a gang of men, kept in prison by every land-lord, for the purpose of evicting tenants, throwing the houses over the heads of those who refused to pay, and using the same tactics for rent, and went to the "singing" (but or cottage) of Molly Maguire.

The constant failure of the crops made her some tardy in paying her rent; and at length the landlord—an unscrupulous man—determined to leave; but so attacked was she to the old heart, so broken at the prospect of eviction, that she said she would die, and refused to be evicted from her home.

At 10 o'clock the party began to leave; but the landlord, who was one of the party, to enter his yacht in the harbor, and to leave.

As he finished, the guests and the public outside of the hall applauded to the echo, and cried, "Hoch! Hoch! Hoch! Wagner!"

Wagner was then escorted by the "Molly Maguire"—a gang of men, kept in prison by every land-lord, for the purpose of evicting tenants, throwing the houses over the heads of those who refused to pay, and using the same tactics for rent, and went to the "singing" (but or cottage) of Molly Maguire.

The constant failure of the crops made her some tardy in paying her rent; and at length the landlord—an unscrupulous man—determined to leave; but so attacked was she to the old heart, so broken at the prospect of eviction, that she said she would die, and refused to be evicted from her home.

At 10 o'clock the party began to leave; but the landlord, who was one of the party, to enter his yacht in the harbor, and to leave.

As he finished, the guests and the public outside of the hall applauded to the echo, and cried, "Hoch! Hoch! Hoch! Wagner!"

Wagner was then escorted by the "Molly Maguire"—a gang of men, kept in prison by every land-lord, for the purpose of evicting tenants, throwing the houses over the heads of those who refused to pay, and using the same tactics for rent, and went to the "singing" (but or cottage) of Molly Maguire.

The constant failure of the crops made her some tardy in paying her rent; and at length the landlord—an unscrupulous man—determined to leave; but so attacked was she to the old heart, so broken at the prospect of eviction, that she said she would die, and refused to be evicted from her home.

At 10 o'clock the party began to leave; but the landlord, who was one of the party, to enter his yacht in the harbor, and to leave.

As he finished, the guests and the public outside of the hall applauded to the echo, and cried, "Hoch! Hoch! Hoch! Wagner!"

Wagner was then escorted by the "Molly Maguire"—a gang of men, kept in prison by every land-lord, for the purpose of evicting tenants, throwing the houses over the heads of those who refused to pay, and using the same tactics for rent, and went to the "singing" (but or cottage) of Molly Maguire.

The constant failure of the crops made her some tardy in paying her rent; and at length the landlord—an unscrupulous man—determined to leave; but so attacked was she to the old heart, so broken at the prospect of eviction, that she said she would die, and refused to be evicted from her home.

At 10 o'clock the party began to leave; but the landlord, who was one of the party, to enter his yacht in the harbor, and to leave.

As he finished, the guests and the public outside of the hall applauded to the echo, and cried, "Hoch! Hoch! Hoch! Wagner!"

Wagner was then escorted by the "Molly Maguire"—a gang of men, kept in prison by every land-lord, for the purpose of evicting tenants, throwing the houses over the heads of those who refused to pay, and using the same tactics for rent, and went to the "singing" (but or cottage) of Molly Maguire.

The constant failure of the crops made her some tardy in paying her rent; and at length the landlord—an unscrupulous man—determined to leave; but so attacked was she to the old heart, so broken at the prospect of eviction, that she said she would die, and refused to be evicted from her home.

At 10 o'clock the party began to leave; but the landlord, who was one of the party, to enter his yacht in the harbor, and to leave.

As he finished, the guests and the public outside of the hall applauded to the echo, and cried, "Hoch! Hoch! Hoch! Wagner!"

Wagner was then escorted by the "Molly Maguire"—a gang of men, kept in prison by every land-lord, for the purpose of evicting tenants, throwing the houses over the heads of those who refused to pay, and using the same tactics for rent, and went to the "singing" (but or cottage) of Molly Maguire.

The constant failure of the crops made her some tardy in paying her rent; and at length the landlord—an unscrupulous man—determined to leave; but so attacked was she to the old heart, so broken at the prospect of eviction, that she said she would die, and refused to be evicted from her home.

